

About Us

Overview

Dr. Damon Williams PT, DPT, CES, STS is an extraordinary Physical Therapist with years of experience with orthopedic, sports, and work-related injuries. He received a Bachelors/Masters Degree in Physical Therapy with honors from Florida A&M University. He also received his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from Alabama State University. He is certified as an Ergonomic Assessment Specialist and Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Dr. Williams currently serves as Clinical Director of Advanced Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine Clinic. Advanced Physical Therapy was voted as one of the top medical practices in Atlanta by Creative Loafing Newspaper 3 times. Dr. Williams served as the Chief Physical Therapist and Sports Medicine Director for the Atlanta Visions (ABA Professional Basketball Team). He has worked extensively in the Industrial Medicine field working with major corporations such as General Motors. There, he served as the Director of Physical Therapy and Ergonomic Consultant in Doraville, Georgia.

Dr. Williams specializes in the treatment of orthopedic injuries. He has extensive training in manual therapy including joint mobilizations, soft tissue mobilizations and myofascial release. He has worked with numerous high school and college teams such as the University of Alabama and Georgia Tech football teams. Dr. Williams has worked as a physical therapist for the Los Angeles Chargers during preseason and training camp for the last seven years. He has served as team physical therapist for Miller Grove high school basketball team for the past 7 years.(6 consecutive 4A state basketball champions).

Dr. Williams is a member of the Georgia Physical Therapy Association, Who's Who among Medical Professionals, 100 Black Men of America, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Dr. Williams is a dedicated professional who has a passion for his profession. He works diligently to serve each and every patient.